

Join us for our Community Open House
On the Marylhurst University Campus
January 26, 2012
Time: 6:30-8:00 PM

Who Should Attend?

Parent of students who are highly intelligent and have significant talents but feel defeated, frustrated and discouraged by their experiences in conventional classrooms because lessons are not taught in the way they think.

Health Care Professionals who provide resources for family and friends of children with ADHD, dyslexia, and other language-based differences.

Non-Profit Organizations who refer students to schools that are able to support their learning differences.

Community Members who advocate for students with diverse educational needs traditional schools are unable to meet.

Educators/Counselors who are looking for specialized school options for non-traditional learners
